

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, Dec. 7

2000

Program to raise awareness of drunk, drugged driving Friday

There will be a special presentation from 9-10 a.m. Friday in Morris Auditorium in support of National Drunk and Drugged Driving Prevention Month. Bernice Rush, representing Mothers Against Drunk Driving, and Brad Owens, representing the Alabama State Troopers Office, will raise awareness of drinking and driving during the holidays and how it could affect your family.

NASA Exchange book fair, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., through Friday, Bldg. 4203, room 1201

Centerwide holiday reception 1-3 p.m. Dec. 14, Bldg. 4752

In this week's Marshall Star:

- STS-97 launch begins new century for Space Shuttle program
- Marshall history book receives AIAA award
- Follow guidelines when giving, receiving holiday gifts

CFC photo gallery online

Photos from the Combined Federal Campaign are posted on the Web at:
<http://ntf-1.msfc.nasa.gov/cfc2000.nsf>

Equal Opportunity Office has moved to Bldg. 4200, room 716. Same phone numbers